

BIOGRAPHY – Tiffany Clason, Executive Director, State of Utah DABC

Tiffany Clason is an experienced and dedicated public servant. With over 12 years of experience in government at the federal, state, and local level, Tiffany has a reputation for effective stakeholder engagement, nurturing bipartisan relationships, crisis management, data-driven strategies, and building vibrant and respectful work environments. She worked in the U.S. Senate for David Vitter, served as Governor Gary Herbert's Director of Constituent Services, and most recently served as District Director for Congressman Ben McAdams.

Prior to her career in government, Tiffany worked in the food and beverage industry in London. There she successfully executed the launch of a high-end artisan bread line where she developed and deployed best practices in product training programs and brand integrity, expanded market share, and grew retail sales. Tiffany completed a B.A. and M.Ed. at Louisiana State University .

Tiffany lives in Salt Lake County with her husband Stuart and their two children.